

MINOR IN PSYCHOLOGY

Overview

The Minor in Psychology is recommended to complement degrees in other disciplines including the natural and social sciences, the arts and humanities, health sciences, business, law, education, and engineering.

Curriculum Requirements

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Departmental Requirements
PSY 110	Introduction to Psychology	3
Select one		3
PSY 272	Science and Pseudoscience
PSY 290	Introduction to Research Methods
PSY 291	Introduction to Biobehavioral Statistics
PSY 292	Introduction to Biobehavioral Statistics Section B
Nine credits of additional PSY courses at the 200-level ¹		9
Total Credit Hours		15

¹ Only 3 credit hours of PSY 280 may count toward the minor

* Students must earn a minimum grade of C- in a PSY course to count it toward the minor.

 Students must earn a minimum 2.0 psychology GPA to graduate with the minor.

 Students must complete at least 9 of the 15 minor credit hours in residence, and only 3 of these credit hours may be taken through a UM Study Abroad Program with prior written approval.