

MINOR IN BUSINESS LAW FOR NON-BUSINESS STUDENTS

Overview

Minor Area of Specialization in Business Law (People & Society)

The Business Law minor is flexible, permitting students to augment their studies with an appreciation of the role of law and ethics in global citizenship as well as in the student's chosen corporate, creative, scientific, academic, professional, or personal endeavors. Non-Business students pursue the minor in Business Law by officially declaring the minor at their home school or college and by completing the coursework identified below.

Interested students, before declaring the minor, should consult with an academic advisor in the School or College of their degree/major to determine if the minor in Business Law is acceptable. If so, neither advice nor consent from either the Office of Undergraduate Business Education or the Business Law Department is necessary.
